P. D. CONGER,

HAVING added Tailoring to his Cloth Department, and engaged a first class Cutter, Mr. Edw. of Montreal, late of London, to make up all goods prepared to cut or make to order in a style and with a fit that few competitors will give at the same satisfaction. The Subscriber begs to solicit the patronage of the public, whose orders will be executed with care and promptitude.

A fine lot of fashionable Cloths, French Trimmings, and a new lot.

A few articles ready made for Summer will keep them hand.

JONATHAN SPRAGUE

Dr. J. C. Davis, of New York, writes: "I have used your Balaam Elixir in many cases of Cough, Hoarseness, and Sore Throat, and have found it to be a most valuable remedy. It is well adapted for the use of the family, and is a most reliable supply, as the whole of the ingredients are of the purest quality."

This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf of a book. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some minor discoloration and a dark, irregular stain along the bottom edge. A small, dark speck is visible near the top center. The page is otherwise empty of text or illustrations.
